

HOTEL DAPHNE

Located in the charming Houston Heights neighborhood, Hotel Daphne is the latest project from Austin's acclaimed hospitality group Bunkhouse Hotels. With 49 rooms, it's an inviting escape in a residential neighborhood on the rise.

Known for its architecture and walkability to shopping and restaurants, the neighborhood has a rich history of utopian thinking and clandestine drinking. Hotel Daphne aims to fit right in, offering an extended living room to locals in one of Houston's most desirable enclaves. The property will feature an all-day restaurant and bar, a library/small private events space, and lobby retail shop signature to the Bunkhouse brand.
